BAREFOOT RESORT AND TOURNAMENT PACKAGE INFORMATION

THE RESORT

Barefoot Resort and Golf was built to provide a distinguished golf vacation unlike any other golf resort on the East Coast. Myrtle Beach South Carolina's subtropical climate, versatile terrain and proximity to the ocean create memorable views for visitors to the area, they also create a natural paradise for golfers and the perfect setting for four of the coast's leading golf layouts. Four golf courses, available for play at the resort, were designed by golf's most inspired architects, Greg Norman, Davis Love III, Tom Fazio and Pete Dye.

The Norman Course is a Par 72, approximately 7,200 yards long and was designed with Norman's philosophy to bring into play the "bump and run" shots around the greens. This will give the player the option to play a number of different shots. The greens are gently undulating and consist of an average green area of 6,300 square feet.

The Love Course at Barefoot Resort is a traditional course with a Low country character and incorporates Davis Love, III's Carolina golfing experiences in the design. This visually striking course features course generous landing areas and greens complexes similar to those found on Pinehurst #2 at the 1999 U.S. Open.

The Fazio Course is a Par 71, approximately 6,834 yards long. The Fazio course has been strategically designed, incorporating extensive tree cover and many lakes into the landscaping. Waste areas and formal bunkers have been handcrafted and placed for visual and strategic effect, while natural elevation changes add a sense of drama and excitement to the golfing round.

The Dye Course is a Par 72, 7,343-yard layout. This visually stunning design is filled with the infamous pitfalls for wayward shots that have become synonymous with the Dye name. Both beautiful and treacherous, the Dye Course is an experience you won't soon forget.

The Barefoot Resort Golf Club features a collection of two and three bedroom golf villas. Each villa features a well appointed kitchen with granite countertops, designer furnishings and incredibly spacious floor plans. There are no "single" accommodations; if you request a single room, you will have your own bedroom, but share the villa with other golfers.
